PACIS TEAM MEMBERS PARTICIPATE IN NEXTGEN EMR USER GROUP

Thousands of NextGen clients gather in Washington DC to discuss healthcare topics

Torrance, CA – November 19, 2009 – NextGen Healthcare Information Systems, Inc a wholly owned subsidiary of Quality Systems Inc. and a leading provider of ambulatory healthcare and connectivity solutions announced record setting attendance – more than 2700 people at its 2009 User Group Meeting in Washington DC. Since 1995, the annual event has provided a forum for clients using NextGen products and services to discuss and learn about industry developments, product enhancements and emerging trends.

Dr. Steven Davis, Medical Director of PACIS - a division of HealthCare Partners, was impressed by the number of NextGen client physicians who are successfully addressing the challenges of improving the healthcare delivery system in this country by utilizing technology and realizing the benefits of electronic health records every day. “This is a critical time for healthcare, and our software partner NextGen’s user group in Washington DC provided a perfect stage for discussions about the state of the industry and where it is going.” Dr. Davis commented. “I look forward to sharing the best practices and overall feedback I heard at the event with our staff so that PACIS can continue the mission of helping our IPA physicians realize the benefits of EHR technology every day.”
